ANNOUNCEMENTS

We welcome back this morning, Rev Debbie Johnson. During Rev. Richard's Sabbatical, Rev. Debbie Johnson has agreed to serve as our Pastoral Charge Supervisor. Debbie is familiar to many at St. James and is delighted to be back with us and participating in worship during this sabbatical time. Debbie is a "semi-retired" minister and continues to be a Voluntary Associate Minister with both NBUC, Brampton (a congregation she served for 11 years) and Home United Church, Caledon, where she has also served at various times over the last 10 years.

With heavy hearts, the Bond family has shared that John Bond passed away January 15, 2026. He and his beloved wife Betty Ruth joined St. James United Church in January 1979, 47 years ago. John enjoyed serving as a great usher with Tony Gray for many years. John and Betty Ruth gave out food baskets as part of their way of caring for others around them. Betty Ruth adored singing in the choir for so very many years. The Sympathy of the congregation is extended to them and they are in our thoughts and prayers during this time. A celebration of life will be held on Sunday, June 14, 2026 from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. at Turner & Porter Yorke Chapel (2357 Bloor Street West, Toronto). For those who wish, donations may be made to the charity of your choice. To read John's obituary, please visit:

Transition Coffee Discussion

Today, January 25 after church there will be another coffee discussion in the Lounge on the topic: What is it that I/we value at St. James?

This will be a 30-minute informal discussion and all are welcome. These discussions are to provide information for the future search team for our minister. Please bring your coffee and join in.

* * * * *

If you wear snow boots to church or if your shoes get wet before you enter the building, please bring a dry pair of shoes to change into once inside. This will help save our floors and rugs. Thank you.
